PAPER PRESCRIPTION

Preparation and presentation of repertoire for a large ensemble appropriate to the student's instrument or voice

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will be able to:

- Perform effectively as a member of a large ensemble appropriate to the year of study.
- Contribute to the technical and musical aspects of the studied works.
- Develop a professional work ethic including individual and group skills.
- Demonstrate a clear understanding of large ensemble disciplines and etiquette
- Demonstrate mastery of the repertoire performed by the large ensemble during the year

PAPER CONTENT

Orchestra:

This paper is internally assessed. The final grade will be based partly on the year's work (80%) and partly on the two assessed mock auditions (20%). The grade for year's work is based on the quality of your performance within the orchestra and on your demonstration of orchestral best practice. The latter includes entering correct bowings, phrasing etc. in parts (including those used only for practice). In determining this grade, the conductors and tutors for sectional rehearsals will be consulted.

Opera:

This paper is internally assessed. The final grade will be based partly on the year's work (50%) and partly on performances (50%)

MATERIALS

In the light of recent developments in music lending policies at the hiring institutions, students will now be charged for lost and/or damaged parts. Damaged parts include any markings made using a medium other than pencil. You are responsible for your parts. At the end of the year, any outstanding fines will result in a K grade for the large ensemble course until paid. Charges are as follows:

Lost or damaged part:	$35
Excessive pencil damage on part:	$10

We will agree on the condition of each part when it is signed out. If you are sharing parts with a stand partner, you are still responsible for your music. If necessary, you may photocopy your part for use in orchestra. Parts are to be returned to the Librarian during office hours in the week following the concert.

If you are not able to undertake a live audition, then you will be required to submit a recorded audition before the assessment date. Failing to submit a tape or not making it to the audition on time will result in a 10% deduction in your final course grade.

If a student has a serious reason for not completing all the work required for assessment purposes by the end of the second trimester (13 October) may, on presentation of a medical certificate, have the date for submission extended by the Academic Committee on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Music.
