Prescription

This course is designed to introduce students to the issues and concepts central to an understanding of sexual violence. The focus of the course is on the study of adult rape/sexual assault and child sexual abuse. The course explores the causes, characteristics and consequences of sexual violence, examining issues for both the victims and offenders of these crimes. Topics covered may include theories of sexual offending, criminal justice system responses, victim impacts and survival, rape prevention, and offender treatment programmes.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course should be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the key theories and concepts associated with rape and child sexual abuse.
2. Develop an understanding of the different contexts in which sexual violence can take place.
3. Understand and be able to critically discuss the different criminal justice responses to victims.
4. Understand and be able to critically assess the different approaches to offender treatment.
5. Demonstrate in written form a critical awareness and analysis of a self-selected aspect of sexual violence.

Teaching format

This course combines lectures, class discussion, and guest presentations in a format that aims to guide students through the major topic areas. It is taught via one two-hour lecture each week supplemented by tutorials. Students are expected to be active participants in tutorials and to complete essential readings prior to attendance.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- Attend at least 7 of the 9 tutorials;
- Submit the essay outline;
- Submit the extended essay; and
- Sit the examination.

Workload

University guidelines stipulate that a 20-point course should require 13 hours per week, including class time, of student work.

In addition to attending classes and tutorials, students can expect to spend approximately the following time meeting course requirements:

- Essential reading = 40 hours
- Essay proposal = 10 hours
- Research essay = 40 hours
- Exam preparation = 40 hours

Assessment

Assessment items and workload per item		%	CLO(s)	Due date
1	Essay Outline (no more than 2 A4 pages in length)	10%	5	6 August 2014
2	Extended Essay (3,000 words)	45%	2,5	17 September 2014
3	Final Examination (3 hours)	45%	1,2,3,4,5	Exam Period: 24 Oct to 15 Nov 2014

Essay Outline

Weighting 10%

Length: no more than 2 A4 pages in length

Due Date: 6 August 2014

This should be on a topic of your choice, but obviously one which is related to the broad theme of the course. In choosing your topic, you may find it useful to look through the Course Readings and see the broad range of areas covered, remembering that you are free to also choose virtually anything related to the field of sexual violence. You must make your selected topic specific and focused in scope so you can engage with it rather than present broad descriptions and overviews.

Your outline should indicate the title and proposed structure of the paper, the main issues which will be canvassed and your overall essay aim. In your proposal you should also provide an initial list of the books, journal articles and other sources of information on which your essay will be based.

The outline must be submitted in the following format:

1. On A4 paper - please use one side of the paper only.
2. Text to be typed.

After doing some preliminary thinking and research, you are encouraged to discuss your proposed topic with the course tutor.

Extended Essay

Weighting 45%

3,000 words in length

Due: 17 September 2014

As indicated above, the extended essay allows you to research and write about a single topic of your choice relating to the course's overall focus on sexual violence. Your extended essay should be appropriately referenced to demonstrate the scope of your reading and analysis of your topic. The essay and will be assessed using the marking guidelines below.

Final Examination

Weighting 45%

Length: 3 hours

Date: During the examination period

The examination is worth 45% of your final grade and will be 3 hours long. The examination period for the first trimester is from 24 October to 15 November 2014. The date, time and location of the examination is set by the University and will be made available after the mid-trimester break. You are not permitted to take any notes or readings into the exam room.

Marking Guidelines

The School insists on a high standard of written work from students. All assessments should follow Institute guidelines for referencing. These are detailed below. You should also ensure that you check thoroughly for spelling mistakes and grammatical errors. Careful proof reading is essential.

The following indicate the criteria that are used in marking:

Scope: Does the work include all the facts, theories and discussions relevant to the issue? Is it comprehensive?

Critical analysis: Does the writer show an adequately critical appraisal? Is the criticism constructive? Are the arguments logically valid? Is it free from irrelevancies and unsupported generalisations?

Originality: Is there clear evidence of original thinking? Does the writer contribute new viewpoints, or marshal and categorise her/his facts in a new way?

Referencing and Bibliography: Are the references relevant, comprehensive and up to date? Are the references correctly cited according to standard convention?

Communication: Does the work communicate the writer's ideas and knowledge well? Is the work well-structured with clear introductory and concluding sections? Is it concisely written and grammatically correct?

Note: Use the word limit as a guide indicating the degree of depth you are to strive for in writing your essay. For this reason, you are not advised to submit work that is considerably shorter than the limit.

It is also most important that you do not exceed the word limit. Students are advised that failure to keep to the word limits set for each assignment can result in examiners refusing to read that part of the essay which is in excess of the word limit.

Students are advised that tutors and other Institute staff members are not allowed to comment or provide feedback on draft essays. It is possible, however, for students to discuss assignments in general terms.

Submission and return of work

Submit a paper copy to the Assignment Box at the SACS Administration Office, Level 9, Murphy Building (to the side of the lifts), by 4pm on the due date. Your essay MUST NOT be placed in individual staff pigeonholes, or under staff office doors, or handed to lecturers or tutors. The Assignment Box is cleared at 4pm every day. All work is date-stamped, recorded and then handed to the appropriate markers.

Marked assignments not collected in lectures or tutorials can be collected at the Murphy 9th floor reception desk, between 2.00 and 4.00 pm only from Monday to Friday.

Students can expect their marked work to be available within approximately 3 weeks of their submission date.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Assignments must be handed in by the due date. You are expected to keep to this deadline, as otherwise it is unfair to other students. Extensions will be granted only in exceptional circumstances, and should be sought from the course co-ordinator prior to the deadline. An example of an exceptional circumstance would be illness supported by a letter from a medical practitioner. Please note that lack of organisation, word-processing failures and other work demands are not "good reasons".

Penalties

Assignments must be handed in by the due date. You are expected to keep to this deadline, as otherwise it is unfair to other students.

Extensions will be granted only in exceptional circumstances, and should be sought from the course co-ordinator prior to the deadline. An example of an exceptional circumstance would be illness supported by a letter from a medical practitioner. Please note that lack of organisation, word-processing failures and other work demands are not “good reasons”.

Late submission of work without permission will be penalised by the following deductions:

One grade = period up to and including 24 hours past due date.

Two grades = period from 24 hours up to and including 72 hours past due date.

It is also most important that you do not exceed the word limit

Please see the Marking Guidelines for information on exceeding the word limit.

Work that is handed in later than 72 hours without prior permission will not be accepted.

Set texts

The set text for this course is a book of student notes available from VicBooks, Ground Floor Easterfield Building, Kelburn Campus. Students can order textbooks online at www.vicbooks.co.nz or can email an order or enquiry to enquiries@vicbooks.co.nz.

Recommended reading

The essential readings to be read in advance of each week’s classes are contained in the book of student notes. A fuller list of readings will be posted on Blackboard, including supplementary material related to each week’s topic.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Students may like to write the Class Rep’s name and details in this box:

Class Rep name and contact details:

Student feedback

Enhancements made to this course, based on the feedback of previous students, will be covered during the course.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.
