Communication of additional information

Noticeboards are in the corridor of Von Zedlitz on level 3. Notices to course members will also be placed on the Blackboard site for LING101.

Prescription

An introduction to the study of language, increasing understanding of a range of language issues of general interest in the community.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course should be able to:

1. Make suitable use of reference material, including dictionaries, books, journals and other works, as appropriate to the field;
2. Appreciate some of the complexity of linguistic behavior;
3. Understand and articulate some very general features of language, such as the inevitability of language change and the importance of structure dependence;
4. Understand and articulate some popular misconceptions about language, showing why they are erroneous;
5. Discuss actual language usage as reflected in genuine data they have seen.

The assignments are designed to provide training in the use of reference tools, in the presentation of material, in working with genuine language data, and in thinking about language as a human phenomenon.

Teaching format

Teaching in LING 101 is by means of lectures, some of which will involve presentation of relevant video material, and tutorials, in which concepts introduced in lectures will be discussed.

Tutorials form an essential part of all Linguistics courses. It is expected that students will attend all of their scheduled tutorials. You should inform your tutor if you are unable to attend a tutorial, and arrange to attend at another time if at all possible.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- sit the test and make a satisfactory attempt at THREE of the assignments. "Satisfactory" means that where they have not reached a C- standard, they must nevertheless reflect the fact that the assignment has been taken seriously and that a reasonable amount of effort has been devoted to the topic. Even when only three (out of four) assignments are handed in, the final mark will be calculated over four; that is a mark of 0/20 will be entered for the missing assignment. To be accepted as fulfilling these mandatory course requirements, assignments for which no mark is given must be received no later than October 17th 2014.

- Attend a minimum of eight of the 10 tutorials.

Workload

The expected workload for a 20-point course is 200 hours spread over the trimester, including the mid-trimester break. This will include 36 hours of lectures (3 per week over 12 weeks) and 10 hours of tutorials (1 per week in weeks 2 to 11). The remaining time (approximately 12 hours per week) will be spent in reading and in preparing assignments and revising for the test. It is expected that students will spend around 10-15 hours on Assignment 1, and 20-25 hours on Assignments 2-4 and revising for the test.

Assessment

Assessment will be based on five pieces of work, including an in-class test as indicated below.

Piece of work	Date due	Value	Learning objectives addressed
Assignment 1 (350-word essay)	5 pm, 1 st August	20%	1-2
Assignment 2 (1000-word essay)	5 pm, 22 nd August	20%	1-3
Assignment 3 (1000-word essay)	5 pm, 19 th September	20%	1-4
Assignment 4 (1000-word essay)	5 pm, 3 rd October	20%	1-5
In-Class Test (50 min)	17 th October	20%	2-5

Other assessment information:

Assignment 1 should be no longer than 350 words and assignments 2-4 should be no longer than 1000 words. Other marking criteria will be provided with each assignment.

Submission and return of work

Assignments should be put in the drop box for the School opposite the lifts on level 2 of Von Zedlitz building by 5 pm on the due date. Assignments should carry a cover sheet, available from on Blackboard. In addition, an electronic version of assignments should be submitted through Blackboard. Both copies, a hard copy and an electronic one, should be submitted by 5 pm to avoid penalties. Please always keep a back-up copy of your assignment.

Marked assignments will usually be returned within two weeks of the submission date.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

You should not require extensions for your assignments. However, if some circumstances arise in which you do, please contact the course co-ordinator, in advance, to arrange one.

Penalties

In line with Linguistics programme policy, assignments handed in after the due date will receive a considerably reduced grade unless accompanied by a medical certificate or other evidence of exceptional circumstances (see 'Extensions' above).

All assignments are all due on Fridays at 17:00. Unless you have a valid extension granted for your assignment, the following penalties will apply:

	Penalty
For assignments handed in after Friday 17:00 on the due date but before the following Friday at 17:00	One grade less (5%) per working day after due date, and no comments provided
For assignments handed in after Friday 17:00 in the week after the due date	No mark, but the assignment can still count for mandatory course requirements if submitted by end of term

Plagiarism is not acceptable in assessed work, and will be penalised. The penalty will depend on the severity of the plagiarism.

Also, consult the course coordinator in case your text exceeds the word limit. Without prior arrangements in that regard, the course coordinator maintains the right to give only minimal feedback on the text.

Set texts

Bauer, Laurie, Janet Holmes and Paul Warren 2006. Language Matters. Basingstoke: Palgrave Macmillan.

You are expected to buy this text, as you will be required to read a chapter in preparation for most of the lectures, as indicated in the lecture schedule.
