Communication of additional information

This course uses Blackboard and presumes that all enrolled students have valid myvuw.ac.nz addresses. Please check that this account is active and you have organised email forwarding.

Additional information and any changes to the timetable or lecture and seminar programme will be advised by email, announced in lectures, and posted on the course Blackboard site.

Prescription

This course will examine some important topics that lie at the interaction of moral philosophy and international relations, including war and just-war theory, humanitarian aid and intervention, and nationalism and state-hood.

Course content

See Schedule of Readings on Blackboard for a complete list of topics and readings for the course. Students are responsible for completing the required readings ahead of the week in which they are discussed.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course will be able to:

1. demonstrate an in depth understanding of a variety of debates in the field of ethics and international affairs
2. critically evaluate a variety of arguments in the field of ethics and international affairs using established methods of formal or informal logic
3. analyse or elucidate complex ideas and concepts in the field of international affairs

Teaching format

PHIL/POLS/INTP 264 is taught in three 50-minute lectures per week.

Mandatory course requirements

Other than achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, there are no mandatory course requirements.

Workload

This course has been designed on the assumption that students will devote approximately 200 hours to it throughout the trimester. This is an average of 14 hours per week across the 14 weeks of trimester. This includes attendance at 3 lectures each week. The remainder of your time will need to be shared between reading preparation and making progress on assignments.

Things to consider when planning your time:

- Reading preparation involves careful reading of set texts for meaning and argument, as well as note-taking and preparation of responses to discussion questions. As you become more skilled throughout the trimester, this may take fewer hours each week but in the first instance 1 hour per reading is worth 'budgeting' for.
- Essays and other written assignments may require enough time for location, retrieval and reading of a range of sources. Note-taking, planning, drafting and editing the draft will all be necessary before writing up a final version.

Assessment

Assessment items and workload per item		%	CLO(s)	Due date
1	2 out of a possible 3 x 20-min surprise in-class tests (10% each)	20%	2, 3	TBA
2	1 essay (approx. 2,500 words)	30%	1, 2, 3	26 September 5pm
3	1 Take-home final test	50%	1, 2, 3	17 Oct 5 pm - 26 Oct 11.59 pm

PHIL/INTP/POLS 264 is assessed on the basis of three surprise tests, one essay, and one take-home final test:

- (a) Surprise tests: There are three surprise tests, to be given in class. Of these, the highest two scores will count (10% each) toward your final grade. Each test comprises three short answer questions and will last 20 minutes. The tests are meant to provide an incentive to complete the readings. They will test only your comprehension of –not your ability to evaluate – the required readings for the week in which the text falls. Any reading for that week may (but not necessarily will) be tested. What this means is that you should complete all of the readings for each week before the start of the first class on Monday. The Schedule of Readings, including all required and recommended readings, is posted on Blackboard. Please note that there are no make-up tests.
- (b) Essay: The essay is worth 30% of your overall final grade, and is due at 5:00pm, Friday 26 September. The essay is designed to test your ability to critically analyse one of the key issues discussed in class. The essay should be approximately 2,500 words. It must be submitted electronically to Blackboard; a hard copy is not required. The essay topics are available on the assignments page of Blackboard. Please note that essay extensions will be granted only for doctor-verified medical reasons or other emergencies. No essays will be accepted after 17 October at 5pm.
- (c) Take-home final test: The take-home final test, worth 50% of the final grade, comprises two questions drawn from material covered during the last four weeks of lectures. Each question should be answered with a short essay of approximately 1500 words. The final test will be posted on Blackboard at 5pm on Friday 17 October. It must be submitted electronically to Blackboard no later than 11:59pm, Sunday 26 October. Please note that no late tests will be accepted. If for any reason you are unable to submit your test onto Blackboard, then you must email your test to me as an attachment, in Word format (no zipped or compressed files, please) by the due date: ramon.das@vuw.ac.nz.

Submission and return of work

Essays should be submitted electronically through Blackboard, together with completed cover sheet available on Blackboard. Marked essays will be available on Blackboard to students no later than 17 October at 5pm.

Extensions

Extensions can be granted only with the prior approval of the course coordinator, and only in exceptional circumstances. Having lots of other assignments due around the same time is no excuse; plan ahead. If granted an extension, students must agree to a new due date. Contact Ramon Das as soon as a problem emerges. There will be no make-ups for missed tests for any reason.

Penalties

Late submission of research essays will not be accepted unless the student makes an appointment as soon as practically possible with the course coordinator to explain the lateness (ideally before the deadline for submission of the assessment task). The circumstances under which an extension will be considered are outlined in section 3.2.1 of the Assessment Handbook. (see: www.victoria.ac.nz/documents/policy/staff-policy/assessment-handbook.pdf).

Set texts

Required: Global ethics: an introduction, by Heather Widdows, Acumen, 2011. See www.vicbooks.co.nz for details. Other required readings will be posted on Blackboard: please see the Schedule of Readings.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box. Their details will also be posted on Blackboard.

Class Rep name and contact details:

Student feedback

Enhancements made to this course, based on the feedback of previous students, will be covered during the course. Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.
