Communication of additional information

Any further announcements concerning the course will be announced in class and communicated to students on Blackboard.

Prescription

A study of Latin, assuming basic reading skills, with emphasis on the reading of selected texts. 100% internal assessment.

Course content

Building on LATI 103, this course aims to develop students' knowledge of Latin grammar and syntax, with a particular focus on students' reading competency.

Set texts

Kitchell, Jr., Kenneth F. and Thomas J. Sienkewicz. Disce! An Introductory Latin Course, First Edition (Prentice Hall, 2011) Volumes 1 & 2

Students will start from the beginning of chapter 17.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course should be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge of Latin vocabulary, morphology and syntax;
2. read and translate Latin passages into English;
3. identify and discuss linguistic concepts for Latin; and
4. continue the study of Latin in LATI 213.

Teaching format

This course is taught via a seminar format in which the lecturer explains Latin grammar, vocabulary and translation as necessary. Students will participate in all activities, including reading and translating sentences and passages and writing answers on the blackboard. Students are expected to bring all homework exercises, completed in advance, to class.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

1. attempt all assessment items.

Workload

Students should expect to spend about 200 hours in total on a 20-point course. Because LATI 104 is taught in six weeks with no examination, this equates to forty hours per week for the average student. This includes eight hours in class and thirty-two hours of independent study, or eight hours of study for every class.

There is no attendance requirement for this course. However, students who do not attend at least 80% of classes should not expect to succeed.

It is highly recommended that students attend and participate in all classes and complete all preparation for each class. Do not get left behind! If you 'take a rest' for even just a day, you may not be able to catch up afterwards.

Assessment

LATI 104 is 100% internally assessed.

Assessment items and workload per item	%	CLO(s)	Due date
1 3× 20-minute quizzes will assess students on their grasp of recently-studied material, focusing on vocabulary, morphology and some syntax. Questions will mostly be short-answer; some translation from English into Latin may be required. Each quiz will be marked out of 40; your average over the three quizzes will determine your grade for this section. The quizzes will begin at the start of class (10.00am) on the set day.	40%	1, 3	Mon. 12 Jan. Fri. 16 Jan. Tues. 3 Feb.
2 1x take-home assignment will focus on translation from Latin to English and include questions on morphology, vocabulary and syntax. Students will have one week to complete the take-home assignment. It will be posted on blackboard and students will have one week to complete the assignment which must be handed in to the assignment box outside OK508 by 5pm on the due date.	30%	2, 3	Mon. 26 Jan.
3 1× take-home final test will assess students on all the material from the course. The test will consist of questions similar to both those of the quizzes and of the assignment.	30%	1, 2, 3, 4	Tues. 17 Feb.

Marking criteria: Students are being assessed on accurate knowledge of Latin. Partial credit will be given for incorrect answers which nevertheless demonstrate correct understanding of Latin language.

At this stage in students' language learning, accurate translation of Latin is more important than refined English; "translationese" is not only acceptable but preferred.

Statement on legibility: Students are expected to write clearly. Where work is deemed 'illegible', the options are:

- the student will be given a photocopy of the work and asked to transcribe it to an acceptable standard (preferably typed) within a specified time frame after which penalties will apply;
- the student will be given a photocopy of the work and asked to transcribe it to an acceptable standard (preferably typed) and lateness penalties apply;
- if the student does not transcribe it to an acceptable standard, the work will be accepted as 'received' (so any associated mandatory course requirements are met) but not marked.

Submission and return of work

Students must sit quizzes and the take-home test on the set days, and submit the assignment by 5.00pm on the due date. Students should contact the course coordinator as soon as they are aware of any issue with sitting the tests on the set days or submitting the assignment on time.

Students wishing to sit assessment more than one day late may be required to sit alternative assessment, in order to facilitate prompt return of work to the rest of the class.

Work submitted after Thursday 19 February 2015 cannot be accepted in any circumstances.

Penalties

Late submission of assignments will be penalised at 2% (out of 100%) per day.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box:
