Communication of additional information

The EURO 101 noticeboard is on floor 5 of the von Zedlitz building, opposite room vZ505. Additional information or information on changes will be conveyed to students either via class, noticeboards, Blackboard, or email.

Prescription

This course provides an introduction to current issues related to the society and institutions of the European Union, as reflected in European culture.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course should be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge of key points of European history before 1960, and in more detail for 1945 to the present;
2. demonstrate knowledge of aspects of the histories, societies and cultures of selected European countries since 1945;
3. demonstrate an understanding of important aspects of international and inter-cultural relations and tensions in contemporary Europe;
4. demonstrate knowledge of key literary and cinematic texts in relation to the theme of this year's course;
5. understand and comment on texts in English dealing with history and contemporary European societies;
6. discuss, in spoken and written analysis, aspects of the political and social themes studied.

Teaching format

This course is delivered through two lectures and one tutorial per week. The lectures will cover aspects of the history, societies and cultures of Europe. The tutorials will focus on the development of analytical skills and will foster discussion related to the set texts and lectures. The tutorials will require students' active participation in group exercises or discussion activities.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- (i) sit the written tests on the dates indicated;
- (ii) submit all work by the due dates, subject to the provisions on extensions and penalties;
- (iii) attend a minimum of 80% of tutorials

Although a roll call is not taken in lectures, attendance is expected, and your success and enjoyment of the course will be directly proportional to your participation.

Workload

The University Assessment Handbook has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a one trimester 20-point course should work on average 1 hour per point, including contact hours. This adds up to a total of 200 hours, which in the case of EURO 101 includes 40 hours of class time (24 hours of lectures, 10 hours of tutorials, and approximately 6 hours of film viewing) across the semester. The remaining hours should be taken up by approximately 100 hours of reading and review (both general and test-specific) and 60 hours of work on the assignment and tutorial worksheets (see below).

Please note that these figures are only a very rough guideline. Some students will find they need to do more, and students aiming for high grades will almost certainly need to do more.

Assessment requirements

Assessment items and workload per item (please note that workloads also include general reading and class preparation)		%	CLO(s)	Due date
1	Tutorial Test (50 mins; approximately 10 hrs work)	10%	1, 2, 4	Week 4
2	Class Test 1 (50 mins; approximately 25 hrs work)	25%	1,2,3	Wed 16 April
3	Class Test 2 (50 mins; approximately 25 hrs work)	25%	1,2,3	Wed 4 June
4	Written assignment (1,500 words; approximately 45 hrs work)	30%	1,2,3,6	Wed 28 May
5	5 Tutorial Worksheets (2%each) (8-12 short answer questions each; approx. 3 hrs work each)	10%	4,5,6	1. Fri 14 March 2. Fri 28 March 3. Fri 11 April 4. Fri 9 May 5. Fri 23 May

Submission and return of work

All assignments must include a cover sheet available from the SLC (School of Languages and Cultures), which will be attached to your Assignment Instructions and will also be available on Blackboard. Assignments are to be handed in to the EURO assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Office on the 6th floor of the von Zedlitz building.

Students will be able to collect marked work from the SLC Office on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz. Uncollected work will be destroyed 3 months after the date of the final written test.

Tidy presentation of assignments is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out and typos indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for corrections: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write on alternate lines or double space if typing. Do not write in pencil. No responsibility will be taken for assignments placed in open staff mailboxes, pushed under doors etc. You should always keep a copy of your notes, rough drafts and completed work until your marked work is returned to you.

Extensions and penalties

The due dates for the assignments given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Coordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem. The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day. In addition, please note that up to a maximum of 5% may be deducted for poorly presented assignments. Please note that no work for assessment will be accepted after 21 June.

Tests and impairments

The dates of the test given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. You should always sit a test if humanly possible, obtaining a medical certificate if you wish to claim impairment. If you sit the test but believe your performance has been radically affected by some medical or other factor, inform the Course Coordinator immediately. If you fail the test, you may be able to claim impairment.

If it is quite impossible to sit a test, for severe medical or personal or family reasons, you should do everything possible to notify the Course Coordinator, if necessary through the Administrator, before the test, or get a friend or family member to do so on your behalf.

Only in cases of severe illness or other exceptionally difficult circumstances, which must normally be documented, can the School consider allowing students to sit a test at a different time from that indicated.

Extensions and Penalties

Assignments must be handed in at the deadlines specified to avoid penalties. 5% per day (counting an individual piece of work as 100%) will be deducted from work submitted after the assigned date without prior permission or without a necessary and demonstrable reason such as illness. While extensions may be granted, work that comes in after the original deadline will as a rule receive less feedback. Please keep to the word counts; assignments that fall below or go over the given limits by more than 10% can expect to lose marks in proportion to the severity of the excess or shortfall.

Set texts

For this course there is a handbook containing required reading material. The handbook is: EURO 101: Introduction to European Studies.

There are no other set texts for the course. Students should note that the handbooks also contain further lists of recommended reading which will help them prepare for tests and assignments.

Set texts can be purchased from Vic Books, Ground Floor Easterfield Building, Kelburn Parade. They can also be ordered online at www.vicbooks.co.nz. Orders and enquiries can be emailed to enquiries@vicbooks.co.nz.

Class representative

A class representative will be elected in the first week, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students. Class reps will attend a meeting with the Head of School to discuss how the course is going and to raise any concerns or suggestions that they may have. You can find out more information on Class Representatives on the VUWSA website: www.vuwsa.org.nz

Language Learning Centre (LLC)

The Language Learning Centre (LLC) is the University's technology-rich, multimedia centre supporting language learning.

At the LLC you can practise and extend your language learning. You can:

- Find materials to support your language studies, including dictionaries, textbooks and graded readers.
- Study independently using language learning software, audio material and DVDs.
- Find a welcoming environment with services and events, and onsite assistance and support for languages
- Become a Language Buddy or find a conversation group.

Visit the LLC on Level 0, von Zedlitz Building and take a look at our website www.victoria.ac.nz/llc

Student feedback

Response to feedback for this course will be discussed in class or delivered via Blackboard.
