Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course will be able to:

1. Analyse the values, morals, and beliefs underpinning social and public policies in New Zealand over the last three decades;
2. Question the 'norms' and justifications underpinning contemporary policy decisions;
3. Establish an initial understanding of the core institutional, economic, and demographic factors that impact on the planning and provision of social and public policy in New Zealand;
4. Establish an initial understanding of the impact of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and globalisation on New Zealand policy development and delivery;
5. Develop academic reading and writing skills;
6. Use tutorials to discuss contemporary policy issues and political debates, and to reflect upon different viewpoints.

Teaching format

Lectures and tutorials:

Students are expected to regularly attend lectures and will be advantaged if they do so. Enrolment for tutorial classes will be done using the S-Cubed system.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- submit three written assignments;
- sit the final examination;
- must attend 5 of the 9 scheduled tutorials.

Workload

The expectations are that students will work 10 hours per point, therefore a 20 point course equates to 200 hours over the trimester. This includes scheduled contact time, individual or group study, and work on assessment tasks.

The workload allocated to the required tasks for this course will vary from student to student however it is expected that students will spend:

- at least 10 hours on assignment 1
- at least 15 hours on assignment 2
- at least 25 hours on assignment 3
- at least 30 hours preparing for the final examination

The remainder of the expected time for this course will be spent reading material in preparation for lectures and tutorials, in group discussions, and in class itself.

Behind all social and public policy decisions are a range of ideological positions. Discuss the values which make up ONE of the ideological positions listed below:

- Conservatism
- Neo-liberalism
- Social democracy
- Feminism

To discuss your chosen concept you are required to use one reading from the student notes for this course; a chapter from a book from the Victoria University Library; and one journal article.

ASSIGNMENT 3: Essay

Weighting 20%

Due date: 4pm, 19 May 2014

Word Limit: 2,000 words

Please answer ONE of the questions below.

1. What are the core values underpinning New Zealand's contemporary welfare regime?
2. Have the processes of globalisation impacted upon the New Zealand policy-making?
3. Discuss the dominant ideology of New Zealand's tertiary education policy under the current National-led government.
4. Discuss the rationale given by New Zealand governments when providing state housing.

Marking Guide/Template:

Please see the template/marking guide on the back page of this course outline.

FINAL EXAMINATION

Weighting: 50%

Date: TBA

Length: 2 hours

This is a 2-hour examination and counts for 50% of the total course mark. It is a 'closed book' examination. Information about the final examination will be handed out in the lecture on 5 June. The examination will take place during the examination period of 13 June to 2 July 2014

Submission and return of work

Assignments must be placed in the assignment box on level 9, Murphy Building, to the side of the lifts. The Assignment Box is cleared at 4pm on the due date, all work is date-stamped, its receipt recorded, and then handed on to the appropriate markers. Every effort will be made to return marked assignments within two-weeks of the due date. Marked assignments will be available for collection between 2.00 and 4.00 pm from Monday to Friday at the Murphy 9th floor reception desk.

School Assignment Cover Sheet

Please include a School Assignment Cover sheet when submitting your assignments. You may wish to have your own front sheet, but please ensure you place the School's cover sheet on the top as this ensures critical identifying information is provided. A sample School Assignment Cover sheet is at the end of this Outline. Further copies may be found at the School Administration office, and on the Assignment Box, on level 9 of Murphy building.

Students MUST keep a photocopy of every written assignment. Unless students have followed this procedure, the School will not accept responsibility for pieces of written work claimed to have been handed in.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Any request for an extension must be made to your tutor before the original assignment due date. If you are given an extension, a new submission date will be identified and you will have to submit the work in the same manner as above by 4 p.m. on that day. Failure to do so will result in penalties being applied in the same manner as those for the original submission date.

Penalties

Late submissions for student assignments are subject to a penalty. The exact deduction will be calculated on the basis of one half mark per day late for each 10 marks, i.e. 1 mark will be deducted each day for an assignment worth 20% of the total course mark.

Note: assessment work will not be accepted for marking more than 7 days after the due date or 7 days after an approved extension date. Work must still, however, be submitted to meet the mandatory course requirements

Materials and equipment and/or additional expenses

There are no additional materials required for this course with the exception of the course readings.

Set texts

Each student should buy the prepared book of Student Notes from VicBooks, since ready access to and familiarity with its contents will be required throughout the course. Available from Vicbooks, ground floor Easterfield Building, Kelburn Parade.
